Information provided by you may be stored or processed outside the United Kingdom.

12. Contact Us

If you have questions or concerns about our Policy or you want to know more about how we use your personal information, or changes to your personal information please feel free to contact us.

13. Keeping You Informed - GDPR

At Bee Consult we've always taken data protection very seriously. We want you to know you can trust us to respect your privacy and keep your personal information safe. Legislation aimed at giving you more control over this is called the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) is a new law on data protection and privacy that gives control over your personal information back to you. And although it's a European law, it'll still apply after Brexit. If you want to find out more about the detail of GDPR the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) website is a good source, you can find that here.

The Data Protection Regulation allows you to have more control over what happens to your information too. For instance, if you don't want to receive our information anymore, we'll stop sending it to you.

Our new Privacy Policy came into effect on 22nd May 2018. It tells you exactly what information we can collect, how we can collect it, what we can use it for, who we can share it with – and how we will keep it safe. This is available on application.

You don't have to do anything in response to email, you are receiving email as you previously received information from Bee Consult. If you would like to change how you receive these emails, you can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list. And rest assured, your personal data is in safe hands with Bee Consult.
